DR. CURTIS GRUBER

DR. CURTIS GRUBER, M.D., is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, Pa., where he received his M.D. degree in 1911. He has since that time been engaged in the study of the history of medicine and the life of the great physicians of the past.

He has written many books on the history of medicine and the life of the great physicians of the past. His most recent work is "The History of Medicine and the Life of the Great Physicians of the Past," which is a comprehensive history of medicine from the earliest times to the present day.

His work is a masterpiece of scholarship and is a valuable contribution to the history of medicine. It is a book that every student of medicine should read and every physician should have on his shelves.
